

Coming soon...

Resources Pack

to help schools/Pupil Referral Units (PRUs) implement the

Statutory Guidance: Impartial Careers Education

What it includes

A framework of learning outcomes for young people 7-19 linked to the principles of impartial careers education with suggested activities

A briefing note for careers co-ordinators explaining the importance of careers education and the school's statutory responsibilities to provide impartial support

A briefing note for other staff on the importance of careers education and their role in supporting provision

High quality Ways & Choices classroom materials, designed to support the delivery of the Statutory Guidance

Fact Cards or Key Information on the post-16 pathways

DVDs for use in careers education lessons and parent/carers' events

Materials to help head teachers audit the quality of careers education provision and to judge the extent to which provision is meeting users' needs

A model Partnership Agreement to help schools improve the support Connexions provides to their pupils

Guidance for governors on their role and responsibilities in relation to careers education

WAYS & CHOICES

RESOURCES TO SUPPORT CAREERS EDUCATION

Ways & Choices

Interactive lessons to inspire and motivate young people to make effective decisions about their career pathways. The topics include:

SET 1

- KS4 Decisions and Pathways
- Making Careers Research Work
- Exploring Labour Market Information
- Who Gets To Do What? Challenging Stereotypes
- Post-16 Decisions and Pathways
- Apprenticeships
- The Diploma
- Careers in the Modern World
- Decisions, Decisions, Decisions
- Higher Education

Ways & Choices contd.

- SET 2
- Foundation Learning
 - GCSEs and A Levels
 - Employment with Part-Time Learning or Training
 - Finance for Post-16 Learning
 - Subjects and Careers
 - Individual Learning Planning
 - Making Effective Transitions
 - Building Support Networks
 - Setbacks, Steps Forward
 - Promoting Equality

The resources pack will be distributed to schools and PRUs and downloadable from the cegnet website. www.cegnet.co.uk